

Dear Father,

I pray you're enjoying a peaceful Lenten season. I wanted to let you know about a wonderful new website that was created to help priests reach the largest number of souls during their crowded Easter services.

Inspired by the Jubilee Year of Mercy, DivineMercyMessage.com offers simple, free tools to help you effectively bring God's Mercy to the people. These tools were specifically created to entice the "Easter-Only" Catholics to return the following week for Divine Mercy Sunday, and hopefully the Sundays beyond.

Jesus told Saint Faustina that on that day, "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." No special service is necessary on Divine Mercy Sunday and these materials will highlight just how simple it is to receive the gift of complete forgiveness.

Attractive bulletin inserts can be printed directly from the site, and can even be customized to fit our parish's needs, for free. Helpful homily prompts break down the 730-page diary of Saint Faustina into accessible sound-bites. Just go to DivineMercyMessage.com and click "Share the Message" to find these materials.

Pope Francis himself has said that,

"...Jesus has this message for us: Mercy. I think—and I say it with humility—that this is the Lord's most powerful message: Mercy."

It is my hope that these materials will aid you in answering the call that Jesus gave through Saint Faustina, "On that day, priests are to tell everyone about My great and unfathomable mercy."

Thank you for all the ways you sacrifice for your people. Please let me know if I can be of assistance to you as we near those great and glorious days of Easter and Divine Mercy Sunday.

Sincerely,

"Hardened sinners will repent on hearing their words when they speak about My unfathomable mercy, about the compassion I have for them in My Heart. To priests who proclaim and extol My mercy, I will give wondrous power; I will anoint their words and touch the hearts of those to whom they will speak."
